National Day of Reflection and Prayer

We are encouraged to join together on Tuesday 23 March for a National Day of Reflection, organised by Marie Curie, and for Christians, this will be a day to both reflect and pray. Across the country, churches are invited to be prayerful one year on from the start of the first lockdown. There will be a minute's silence at 12 noon followed by a ringing of church bells and later a doorstep vigil at 8pm.

Look out for the yellow flowers that appear in people's windows, both real and crafted, as a sign of support.

For more information, visit the Marie Curie website:

A day to reflect on our collective loss, support those who have been bereaved and hope for a brighter future.

Our next Zoom fellowship will be on Sunday 28th March at 7pm where we will be focusing our discussions around learning and caring and thinking about how we can learn more about our faith and what we have learned over the last 12 months.
